Municipal Elections are Monday, October 20th, 2025

Did you know that Municipal Elections are very important for libraries?

Funding from municipalities like cities and counties typically make up more than 80% of library budgets.

Having a well funded library means good programs, new books, outreach services, technology support, and a free place to connect with community.

Ask your candidates how they plan to support your library.

PUBLIC LIBRARY

FUEL GOOD DAY

Fill up at Wild Rose Co-op, grab a bite, and Fuel Good on Tuesday, September 16!

Visit the Downtown or Eastside Co-op Gas Bars on September 16 to help support Camrose Public Library's Snacks in the Stacks nutrition program for school-aged kids. Wild Rose Co-op will donate the following proceeds from sales on Fuel Good Day:

- 7 cents per litre of fuel sold
- proceeds from BBQs at both locations from 10:00am to 6:00pm
- $1 from every Big Cool and every Co-operative Coffee purchased

Together, we can keep Snacks in the Stacks thriving and help ensure kids in our community have access to both nourishment and knowledge.

October is Canadian Library Month and we're celebrating alongside some of our vibrant local businesses!

Show your library card at these Camrose businesses during the month of October to get some awesome deal. Details coming soon!!
