1000 Books Before Kindergarten

Ongoing At-Home Program

Track your child's reading from the ages of 0-5 (or until the end of Kindergarten). For every sheet they complete, they get to choose a prize. Once they've reached 1000 books, your child will receive a grand prize which includes a certificate of completion, books, toys, and other great prizes.

Introduce your child to books when they're young, and help foster a love of literacy!

Hogwarts Reading Club

September 1, 2024 - June 30, 2025

Track your reading and earn points for your House! Sort yourself into your House: Gryffindor, Hufflepuff, Ravenclaw, or Slytherin - or let us sort you at random. Keep track of the books you read and their page count - the pages are your House Points. For bonus points, give a brief review of the book. Keep an eye out for monthly challenges! More information available on our website.

Volunteer Opportunities

Film Society Committee

Help Select Titles for our Independent Film Series

Sign up for our Film Society Committee email list and receive information about upcoming TIFF selections for our screenings.

Volunteers can also help with poster distribution before each film, and selling tickets the night-of.

Special Events at the Library

Weekend and After-Hours Programs

Are you interested in helping with some of our special events at the Library? Head over to our website and fill out our volunteer application form.

Reading Buddies

New Initiative!

We're looking to pair strong readers who want to give back, with younger readers who need a little help with their reading progress.

If you're interested, contact the Library for more information!

Little Free Pantry

Seeking Donations and Community Support

The Little Free Pantry is a free, no-questions-asked resource for those experiencing food insecurity. Donations of food and hygiene items can be made any time during our open hours. Cash donations of $20.00 or more will receive a tax receipt.

Library Board

Second Wednesday of the Month | 6:30 p.m.

Library Board meetings are open to the public. Keep an eye out for openings on our Library Board to help support the Library.

Home Deliveries

Books for Homebound Individuals

We're looking for volunteers that are able to drive and transport books and other Library items to patrons who are homebound. Must have a valid driver's license and vehicle insurance.

Snacks in the Stacks

New Initiative!

We're looking for a regular sponsor for our afterschool snacks for kids at the Library. We're also looking for someone who is interested in and able to run a "Snacks in the Stacks" program with prepared food for participants. If you're interested, contact the Library for more information!

Thank you to our sponsors for their support!

SYLVAN LAKE
MUNICIPAL
LITTLE FREE
PANTRY

ABOUT US

The Library houses a free no-questions-asked Little Free Pantry, where those in need can help themselves to perishable and non-perishable food items. The pantry can be accessed any time during our open hours, at no charge.

OUR HISTORY

In September of 2016, we started the Little Free Pantry in the centre of the library to help with growing food insecurities. We started with a few shelves, now we have 3 rows of shelves as well as a refrigerator.

USAGE

As food insecurity rises in the community, the need to restock high demand items becomes more frequent. Monetary donations go towards purchasing these items on a consistent basis.

403-887-2130

MONETARY DONATIONS

Donations can be made on our website, or in person at the library. Donations of $20 or more can receive a tax-receipt. Donations can be made as a one-time gift or on a monthly, quarterly, or annual basis.

PHYSICAL DONATIONS

Physical donations are made up of perishable and non-perishable food items, hygiene products, and toiletries. Businesses and community groups can gather these items, making their own large donation.

- High Demand Items
- Canned protein
  - Canned fruit
  - Hygiene items
  - “Heat & eat” meals

- High Demand Items
- Milk
  - Butter
  - Lunch meat
  - Cheese

Thank you

To all the individuals, groups, and businesses for your support, thank you.
